

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & SAFETY STATEMENT

Risk and Safety Policy

At the Enviro 2010 Conference and Exhibition, we are committed to the health, safety and welfare of our employees, event suppliers and the people affected by our undertakings, including delegates, visitors and exhibitors. We are committed to providing, maintaining and promoting, as far as is reasonably practicable, the highest standards of OH&S and welfare.

Commitments

As part of our overall risk and safety program, Enviro 2010 will:

- comply with relevant legislation, codes of practice, standards and guidelines applicable to Enviro 2010 and exceed industry best practice standards;
- document, implement and communicate the risk and safety policy to all employees, suppliers, contractors and venues and provide adequate resources to ensure this risk and safety policy is maintained;
- seek, evaluate and incorporate employees' opinions in relation to decision-making processes impacting on workplace health and safety;
- provide appropriate training to employees and suppliers where appropriate;
- pro-actively liaise with venues to collaboratively provide a safe venue for all stakeholders; and
- review the risk and safety program regularly to ensure it remains relevant and appropriate to the nature of the business.

Objectives

The overall objectives of our event risk and safety program are:

- zero injuries;
- effective and meaningful consultation with employees regarding issues that affect their health, safety and welfare;
- a risk and safety management program that identifies, assesses and controls all risks to the health, safety and welfare of all people affected by our undertakings, and
- adequate information, training, instruction and / or supervision for all employees and suppliers to ensure work is conducted in the safest possible manner.

OCCUPATIONAL HEALTH & STATEMENT

Responsibilities

Event Organisers

The promotion and maintenance of risk and safety is primarily the responsibility of event management. To this end, it is the responsibility of Enviro 2010 organisers to develop, implement and keep under review, in consultation with venues, suppliers and employees, a risk and safety program capable of managing risks associated with the running of the Conference and Exhibition.

Suppliers

Each supplier is required to ensure that the intent and requirements of the risk and safety plan are effectively met and implemented in their areas of control, to support any subordinates and subcontractors, and to hold them accountable for their specific responsibilities.

Employees, Delegates, Exhibitors and Visitors

All event participants are required to cooperate with the intent of the Enviro 2010 Risk and Safety Policy, and supporting procedures, to ensure their own health and safety and the health and safety of others in the workplace.

The official Enviro 2010 OH&S policy document is available on request from the Conference Secretariat:

T: 1300 651 026

F: 02 9701 0199

E: vdullens@enviroconvention.com.au